Cookie Policy

LAST UPDATED: OCTOBER 20, 2025

Spira Arc Inc. and its affiliates (collectively, “Nado”) may collect and disclose data using cookies and other data collection technologies (“Cookies”) to third-party partners, including service providers. This data may include basic identification information, device information, and other unique identifiers related to your activity on our website and applications, such as your location, pages visited, custom events, certain interactions with trading features, and commercial data.

You may accept or reject all Cookies by clicking on the “Accept All” or “Reject All” buttons when prompted. You can also withdraw your consent to Cookies at any time by changing your preferences. In addition, you may block or delete Cookies directly through your browser settings by following the instructions provided by your browser. Please note that when you choose to block Cookies, certain features of the website and applications may not be available to you or may impact your experience on our website and applications.

Some Cookies are necessary for the website to function properly, while others help Nado analyze website traffic and usage patterns or provide advertising content and social media features tailored to your interests. Nado may also share information about your use of our website and applications with our analytics, advertising, and social media partners, who may combine your information with other information that they have collected from you or through your use of their services.

Nado may update this Cookie Policy from time to time. If Nado makes any changes to this Cookie Policy, Nado will provide you with notice of such changes by updating the “Last Updated” date at the top of this Cookie Policy. Nado encourages you to review this Cookie Policy periodically to stay informed about how Nado uses Cookies and related technologies.

To learn more about our collection and processing of your personal information, please review our Privacy Policy.
